Dear Ms. Dortch:

On December 7, 2010, Philipp Humm, President and Chief Executive Officer of T-Mobile USA, Inc. ("T-Mobile"), Neville Ray, T-Mobile's Chief Technology Officer, Luisa Lancetti, Chief Counsel – Law and Policy for T-Mobile, and the undersigned met with Chairman Julius Genachowski, Josh Gottheimer, and John Leibovitz.

During the meeting, the T-Mobile executives introduced themselves and provided a brief general overview of the important role T-Mobile will continue to play as it rolls out its 4G HSPA+ network in benefiting consumers in the wireless industry with competitive value and choice. The T-Mobile representatives also expressed strong support for the Commission's ongoing efforts to make more spectrum available for mobile broadband use as quickly as possible in order to accommodate future growth and mobile broadband technology and ensure the U.S. remains globally competitive.

In addition, the T-Mobile executives discussed the pending proceedings identified above, urging the FCC to move forward rapidly on its data roaming and D Block dockets consistent with the recommendations of the National Broadband Plan. In discussing each of these issues, the T-Mobile representatives reiterated the views T-Mobile has expressed in its previous filings with the Commission.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, an electronic copy of this letter is being filed with the office of the Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
